May it pleaſe your Grace,

THE Commons, ever attentive to the Important Objects of maintaining the Honour and Dignity of his Majeſty's Government, and the Publick Welfare, have ſhewn ſuch remarkable Unanimity in raiſing the Supplies neceſſary to anſwer thoſe great Ends, as clearly demonſtrate their zealous Attachment to his Majeſty and his Royal Houſe, and their entire Confidence in your Grace, that they will be applied to promote and advance the true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty's Princely Concern for preventing the remoteſt Danger that might threaten the publick Tranquillity when labouring under the Preſſure of the greateſt Domeſtick Affliction, muſt for ever endear his Sacred Perſon to all his People; and we, his Subjects of this Kingdom, who are placed at a greater Diſtance from his Royal Preſence, muſt ever acknowledge his ſending your Grace, to ſuperintend the Affairs of this Nation, as a peculiar Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard and Attention to our Happineſs: Thoſe diſtinguiſhed Talents which recommended your Grace a ſecond Time to that high Station which you formerly filled, with equal Abilities and Integrity; your perfect Knowledge of our true Intereſt, and your approved Inclinations to promote it on every Occaſion, qualify you in the beſt Manner, faithfully to repreſent a dutiful and loyal People to the greateſt and beſt of Kings.

The Proviſion made this Seſſion of Parliament for the further Reduction of the National Debt, and the Encouragement given to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, for the Advancement of Religion and Induſtry, are Conſiderations of the moſt intereſting Nature to every Well-wiſher to this Country; they muſt inſpire us with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty to his Majeſty, and engage us to contribute every thing in our Power, to perpetuate the Honour of your Grace's Adminiſtration, by co-operating with you in all ſuch Meaſures as may enlarge and ſecure to us the Advantages of our preſent happy Situation: It is with very great Pleaſure, therefore, that, purſuant to the Command of the Commons, I now preſent theſe two Bills of Supply to your Grace for the Royal Aſſent.
